BOXERS READY FOR SATURDAY GO; MUSKOPF PREDICTS K. O. VICTORY

Massachusetts Guardsmen Line Up in Support of Johnny Cose; Record Crowd Expected; Livingston and Brown Go To Tucumcari Monday; News and Notes of Local Sports.

EVERYTHING is now in readiness for the boxing card at Camp Cotton on Saturday night. The boxers, both for the main bout and all the preliminaries, will finish their training this afternoon and chaplain H. A. Chouinard, of the 32d infantry, looks for one of the snappiest boxing cards that has been staged at his big stadium.

"I'm ready for the fight of my life," said "Kid" Muskopf, as he was rubbed down in his tent at Fort Bliss on Thursday afternoon. "I'm down as fine as I need to be for this bout and will fight at around 125 pounds. I have come as much as 12 fast rounds in an afternoon with my sparring partners and I know that I have the stamina to travel 30 rounds, if I have to at the pace of my last six round encounter with Cose. You can promise the fans some mighty fast action."

Johnny Cose wasn't talking very much about what he plans to do but the Massachusetts pride had a pleasant smile when he was asked what he thought of the bout. Cose expects to win and to win inside the limit, according to his manager, Jack Kerwin.

Dougherty Seeks Revenge.
The preliminary men are all ready. Sears, of the Massachusetts division, is after some more bouts in the southwest before he returns home and a defeat at the hands of Tommy Dougherty, of the second Pennsylvania, in the semi-final would be a severe setback. Consequently, Sears has taken the best of care of himself and will enter the ring in prime condition. Dougherty, back at Camp Stewart after the "bake" of the Pennsylvania division, looked a bit tired but was evidently in the best of shape. He stated that he had no doubt of his ability to win. Sears got the shade over Dougherty in the last bout, but Tommy says that he was unable to do himself justice on that occasion, as he had not sufficient time to train. He hopes to wipe out the previous defeat in this coming battle. Considerable interest is being shown in the three four round preliminaries as the fans have come to realize that they can look for real action in the "apple-pie" on the Camp Cotton cards.

Larry Stroner returned to Columbus this afternoon and is hopeful of getting a bout here in the near future. Larry is willing to meet "Kid" Muskopf, the seventh infantry, who will, if Muskopf beats Cose on Saturday night, but says that the Fort Bliss man must make 135 pounds at the ring-side.

"I fight around 130 pounds and I'd be a fool to give Muskopf eight or 10 pounds advantage," said Stroner. "I know just how good this fellow Muskopf is and I'd like to meet him, but it will have to be at 135 pounds."

Tommy Livingston is in fine shape for his bout at Tucumcari on the night of Oct. 4. Tommy will be in charge of Jim Brown for this bout and Jim plans to leave for the New Mexico city with his charge on Monday, next. They will have a day to rest up after their arrival and Tommy will likely take advantage of this for some light sparring.

Stroner After Bout.
Livingston's opponent will be Kinas Lubh, of Denver. If the latter doesn't change his mind, as did "Kid" Gonzales, who was first hooked to meet the Pennsylvania. However, the Tucumcari round officials will be well protected this time as Larry Stroner, the Columbus fighter, is willing to take on the bout in the event that the Denver man backs out. Stroner and Livingston would certainly put up a hard battle.

Individual fielding and batting averages of the Commercial league will make their appearance about the end of the week, according to the league secretary, L. M. Coyne.

Only the averages of players taking part in 10 or more games will be published but the secretary will be glad to furnish the averages of other players if they make a request to him.

The game at Rio Grande park on Saturday afternoon between the 20th infantry and the Seventh infantry teams should draw a big crowd. The receipts will go to the Texas hero fund.

No announcement has yet been made as to the pitchers to be used in the Saturday game, but it is probable that the 20th will use McCreach, while Myers will likely go on the mound for the Seventh.

Graham vs. York, Sunday.
On Sunday afternoon, there will be another double header at Rio Grande park. The Seventh infantry will meet the Feldmans in the star event and pitchers Graham and York are being saved for a real pitching battle. "Doc" McLamant will send his star infield to the diamond and the fans should have one of the treats of the season.

Next week the Seventh infantry team will be at Douglas for a series of games. No announcement has been made about a game for October 3, but the Texas league all-stars are due to open against the Commercial league stars on Saturday, Oct. 14. Tickets for this series are now on sale and the fans can assist in making up the necessary guarantee for the professional by a liberal purchase of the books of tickets.

BOSTON PLAYERS WIN GOLF SINGLES SEMI FINALS

Boston, Mass., Sept. 28.—Boston players won the honors in the semi final round of the women's singles at the annual tournament of the Longwood Cricket club Thursday. Mrs. Bargar Wallach of Newport, was defeated by Miss Alice Cunningham of Boston, 4-1, 6-2, and Miss Gwendolyn Brandon, New York lost to Miss Evelyn Bean, Boston, 4-3, 6-3. The victor in the final will challenge Miss Molla Bjurstedt, the national woman champion, who was last year's winner of the event.

In the doubles Miss Edith Rotch of Boston, and Mrs. Bargar Wallach went into the final round by defeating Mrs. R. H. Smith of Philadelphia, and Mrs. A. A. Shurtliff of Boston, 6-2, 6-2.

Boston players monopolized competition in the mixed doubles. Mr. and Mrs. George W. Wightman defeated Miss Alice Cunningham and Gilbert G. Brown 6-2, 6-4, and Miss Edith Rotch and R. C. Sears disposed of Miss Marion Fenno and Irving C. Wright, 6-2, 6-2, 6-4.

CARRIERS' DAY.

Tomorrow, the last Saturday in the month, Herald carriers will present bills for September subscriptions. Subscribers will please remember that all of the carriers are school boys, and Saturday is the only day in the week they have to collect, and are requested to have the amount they owe ready for the boys.

GRIDIRON TEAMS PLAY SATURDAY

Tigers and Alamogordo To Open Athletic Stadium of High School.

The local high school squad is ready for the initial game of the year Saturday with the Alamogordo high team. The steadily improving squad has been out since last Tuesday and it looks as though another out will be due soon.

Coach Wells, with the second team, has built up a speedy, hard hitting machine which makes the first squad no so top speed. Head coach Lafusa has been building from the ground up and is taking no chances on any of the fundamentals being passed over too lightly.

The strong string of "sub" will be in for their share of the game and glory. The team has been put on the new field which will be one of the finest in the southwest in a few weeks and without a doubt it will be the fastest.

The High School Athletic association has acquired a strong membership and will have a "preliminary" parade, to start for the season, to-night through the downtown streets. A large crowd is expected when the whistle blows at 5:30 o'clock on Saturday afternoon.

The revised and final "Tiger" schedule is:

October 20—Alamogordo, here.
October 21—At Mesilla.
October 22—At Mesilla.
October 23—Texas School of Mines, second team at Alamogordo.

October 24—Mesilla, here.
October 25—At Mesilla.
November 11—At Denning.
November 12—Texas School of Mines.
November 13—Leaves for Austin.
November 14—At San Antonio.
December 2—At Austin.

This is the hardest schedule the local school has ever had, and, in fact, the hardest in this part of the country. But the team, from all appearances, seems equal to the task, and should bring the high school championship of the state of Texas to El Paso. With a little boosting and good attendance this can be more easily accomplished.

BECK'S Amen Corner

BY "BECK"

PICKING a winner in the Muskopf-Cose contest at Camp Cotton on Saturday night is too tough a proposition. If the bout ends inside six rounds, Muskopf will likely be the winner for he is the more aggressive and carries a stiffer punch. The longer the bout goes, the better are the chances of Cose.

FANS who have to work on Saturday night will get away in time to see the main bout on the Camp Cotton boxing card can time themselves to reach the ring at 10 o'clock and take in the main event.

SOME sensational baseball is looked for in the game, Sunday, at Rio Grande park when the Seventh and Feldmans meet in an exhibition game. Walls and Purills will complete a double bill.

PHILLIES drew first blood in the Brooklyn series and a victory this afternoon will put Moran's men in the lead by a few points while a victory for the Dodgers will give the Brooklyn team just that much more of a lead. To go home in front for the win, the Phillies must sweep the Brooklyn series.

YOU simply can't dope out the Giants. They have the winning habit so badly now that they seem to have forgotten how to lose. The Giants have certainly set a record which will stand for several years in the major leagues.

GROVER CLEVELAND ALEXANDER cannot pitch every day. Brooklyn fans will get a lot of consolation out of that knowledge this week.

RED SOX were set back a bit on Thursday when they were beaten by the Yankees while the White Sox were idle. The Yankees and Red Sox play again this afternoon while the White Sox are due to open in Cleveland.

BOSTON AMERICANS still have five games to play this season. The White Sox have four. If the Red Sox win more games, they will tie the Chicago team, even should the latter win all its remaining contests, which is hardly likely.

CLEVER pitching does not always mean striking out opposing batters. Alexander fanned only one batter at Brooklyn on Thursday, while Cheney and Combs accounted for six, yet the Phillie flinger had all the better of the pitching argument.

HIGH SCHOOL football fans are showing a lot of interest in the Alamogordo game which opens the new stadium on Saturday afternoon. The schedule this year is a hard one and the fact that there is a long trip to Austin and San Antonio in sight has brought out a fine squad.

WHEN you want to reach the entrance to the new high school athletic stadium, take Ange street from Arizona. There is a pretty fair road for autos. Those who have no machines can take the Arizona street cars or jitneys to Ange and walk four blocks.

THEY seem to be kicking old "Doc" Crandall around the Pacific coast circuit. He started there with Oakland, then pitched for San Francisco, and now he is listed as twirling for Los Angeles.
